Instructions to Recipient

This is important tax information and is being furnished to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). If you are required to file a return, a negligence penalty or other sanction may be imposed on you if this income is taxable, and the IRS determines that it has not been reported.

If you itemized deductions on your federal income tax return for the tax year shown above, retain this form for use in completing your 2018 federal income tax return. See your federal 1040 instruction booklet for more information.

This notice reports the refunds you were allowed during 2018 for the tax year shown above including any surplus credit (kicker) claimed on your 2017 return. The full kicker amount is reported as a refund of tax, even if the kicker amount was more than the refund you received. An overpayment of income tax is considered to be a refund whether it was mailed to you, deposited into your bank account, credited to estimated tax payments, applied to a balance of tax due for a prior year, applied against other debts owed to the State of Oregon or the IRS, contributed to a charitable agency on Schedule OR-DONATE, deposited into an Oregon 529 account, or contributed to a political party.
